Workwear Capsule Wardrobe

The Docket Blog

Hello Friends!

Welcome to The Docket Blog's 2022 Workwear Capsule Wardrobe! Here's the first step in curating a work wardrobe that you don't have to think about and that doesn't cost you an arm and a leg.

The good thing about this wardrobe is that even if you're just beginning to create your workwear wardrobe or if you're looking to cut your closet back it's a good blueprint. You can look through your current wardrobe and select which items will work for your new office.

Hard truth to swallow is just because you toss a blazer over a top or dress doesn't make it work appropriate. If it's too low cut, regulate it to the weekend pile, if it's too short, ditto.

When you're selecting pieces remember to stick to your budget and allot more of your budget to the pieces you will wear multiples times. In this case that's your four suit pieces; and your black and nude heels. You can find these pieces at different price points but my ride or die suits have always been from J Crew. When you find a suit that fits you well, buy all four pieces: blazer, skirt, pants, and dress. The blacks will match and having the entire suit gives you so many options (as you'll see)!

You'll notice I didn't include a bag, since it doesn't really change up an outfit. I still think you need a good work bag. If you're looking for one check out my ultimate guide to workwear bags.

If you have any questions about this workwear wardrobe drop me a line at katherine@thedocketblog.com. I hope you find it as useful as I do!
